PINK MARTINI EVENTS

"A little sassy, but always classy," is the motto at Pink Martini Events, a combination of modern flair mixed with a sense of classic tradition. The mission of lead coordinators, Rebecca & Grace (both certified planners and ordained to perform ceremonies), is to get to know each client and couple thoroughly, truly understand their needs, create a unique and specialized plan, then execute with enthusiasm and bliss! Their personalities have been described as yin and yang, but this balance is optimal and necessary when putting together the perfect event. They possess a passion and love for what they do, which is to make sure people are happy on the day of and all the days leading up to their wedding.
